NAZI-CZECH TROOPS IN BATTLE

BULLETIN!

LONDON, Sept. 14—A pitched battle is under way between Sudeten Germans and Czechs near Falkenau, in the Sudeten area, Reuters reported today from Prague.

Between 10 and 15 Czech gendarmes were reported killed. Sudeten losses, it was said, were much higher, but the exact number is not yet known, Reuters said.

Two thousand Sudetens, according to the party's headquarters in Prague, engaged in a full-fledged battle with regular Czech troops and gendarmerie.

Heavy tanks wheeled into action and threw small shells into the Sudeten lines.

The fight, said Reuters, broke out as the result of a clash between Sudetens and Communists.

Gendarmes attempted to separate the belligerents without using their weapons, the reports said, but were forced to retreat into a police station where they were attacked by the crowd.

Shooting then broke out and several policemen were shot down

PRAGUE, Sept. 14—With three additional divisions of crack troops and an even wider imposition of martial law, Czechoslovakia today militantly answered the Sudeten ultimatum demanding withdrawal of soldiers and police from their territory.

as they attempted to escape from the building.

The crowd seized weapons in the police station, including two machine-guns and a number of hand grenades.

The Sudeten version said police reinforcements arrived a short time later from Falkenau and Zwodau and opened fire on the Sudetens, who returned the fire.

Stocks Again Drop Sharply

NEW YORK, Sept. 14 (AP)—Wall Street fought a losing fight against the spectre of war today. An early price boomlet was swept away in a mid-afternoon selling rush, that left prices down as much as 13 or so a share.

Principal commodities, too, after behaving in more normal fashion in the morning, were caught up in the war psychology. Wheat and corn soared in Chicago.

In the afternoon toboggan slide of prices the ticker was minutes behind transactions. Many quotations dipped under the bottom marks touched yesterday.

BULLETINS

PARIS, Sept. 14 (INS)—Discovery of a carefully organized plot by Sudeten Germans to seize their own area and declare immediate Anschluss with Germany led to declaration of martial law by Czech authorities, a well-informed authority stated here today.

PRAGUE, Sept. 14 (INS)—A new flare-up of Sudeten-Czech disorders occurred this afternoon as desperate efforts were made to bring about resumption of peace talks. Ten Czechs were reported killed in new clashes in the Sudeten area. Eight of those reported slain were Czech gendarmes in Schwaderbach. The entire population of the town defied the police, the report said.

Czech troops, supported by tanks, are battling Sudeten formations in an attempt to dislodge them from seized buildings in several other villages, according to reports from Graslitz.

ROME, Sept. 14 (INS)—United States Ambassador William Phillips cancelled his scheduled departure for the United States today in view of the gravity of the European situation.

22 Arabs Killed In New Outbreak

JERUSALEM, Sept. 14 (AP)—Twenty-two Arabs were killed last night and today in a battle with British troops and a new outbreak of guerrilla warfare.

Twelve were killed, fighting soldiers between Bethlehem and Hebron last night and 10 were blasted to death today when a land mine exploded under a bus on the northern frontier road.

Soviet Paper Sees World War Near

MOSCOW, Sept. 14 (AP)—The Journal de Moscow, which often expresses Soviet foreign office views, said today a new world war seems closer than at any time since 1914.

The newspaper pictured the British government as helping rather than hindering Hitler and said its immediate aim was to "force Czechoslovakia to concede all of Hitler's demands."

At the same time, Prague supplied the answer to the question asked by all of Europe, namely:

Does Czechoslovakia intend to crumble under the onslaught of Adolf Hitler and abandon its sovereignty as a democratic nation to a minority within its own borders—a minority backed by the might of the German army across the border?

Prague remains hopeful that peace negotiations may eventually be resumed. But the link joining government and Sudeten negotiations is a slim one, and was rendered even more fragile this afternoon, when Konrad Henlein and his followers flatly announced they would stand on their ultimatum.

REVOLT PLANS FOUND

They even went further and insisted upon the "right of self-determination" which Hitler mapped out for them at Nurnberg on Monday.

There was no contact today between the Czechs and Sudetens, but Frank Ashton-Gwatkin, of British Mediator Viscount Runciman's mission, saw Henlein and his chief aides at Asch.

As a result of Gwatkin's visit to Henlein, Viscount Runciman issued a brief statement:

"Here Henlein declared the negotiations were broken off on the grounds the events of the last 48 hours have removed conditions for negotiations in accordance with the original mandate."

Plans for a general Sudeten revolt were discovered in a Czech raid today on Sudeten headquarters in the town of Goerikau. There instructions were found to Sudetens to attack Czech police.

2 Women Held In Surgery Case

A Roxbury matron was held today in $1000 bail in Roxbury district court on a charge of performing illegal surgery. Her alleged victim lay dying in Boston City Hospital.

Also held were a man and a woman charged with being accessories before the fact. All three pleaded not guilty before Judge Timothy J. Ahern.

Mrs. Victoria Larsen, 40, of Warren street, Roxbury, was charged with illegal surgery on Mrs. Minerva Spavak, 23, of Tremont street, Roxbury, in December 1936, and on Mrs. Doris Freil, 30, of Reddy avenue, Hyde Park, on last July 3.

Doctors at Boston City Hospital do not expect Mrs. Freil to live. Mrs. Spavak, herself once an alleged victim of an illegal operation, is held as accessory to charges involving Mrs. Freil's operation, as is Frederick F. Tomlinson, 21, of Minot street, Dorchester.

Girl in Hospital; Car Mishap Probed

FALL RIVER, Sept. 14 (INS)—Inspectors and police today investigated an accident in which Miss Lorette Laroque, 27, of St. Joseph street, suffered injuries in a fall from an automobile on the Fall River-Providence highway.

At Union Hospital she was treated for injuries to both legs.

Dewey to Speed New Hines Trial

NEW YORK, Sept. 14 (INS)—District Attorney Thomas E. Dewey announced today he planned to bring a new and stronger case against James J. Hines, "big shoe" Tammany leader, whose hearing a policy conspiracy charges ended yesterday in a mistrial.

"Make no mistake about it. Hines will be brought to justice," the youthful prosecutor declared. "I will move for a new trial at the earliest possible date."

Still smarting under Supreme Court Justice Ferdinand A. Pecora's decision, Dewey, it was learned, planned to obtain a superseding indictment against the Tammany leader. By this move he could avoid a second appearance before Pecora. The young district attorney planned to bolster his case by calling additional witnesses.

U.S. Bogus Cash Drive Nets 7

Seven men, alleged members of a gang of counterfeiters whose activities are said to have included passing bogus money at the Brockton Fair, were arrested in a roundup by U. S. Secret Service agents today.

The roundup revealed a Secret Service investigation that has been going on for two months, during which time towns from Fall River to Quincy have been flooded with counterfeit money.

According to Secret Service agents, headquarters of the counterfeiters was a Fall River cafe. There, the Secret Service agent charged, the counterfeit money was sold by members of the gang in wholesale lots to various agents and independent operators.

NEW ARRESTS DUE

Five of the six men arrested were taken into custody in Fall River.

The sixth was arrested in Brockton. A seventh, likewise linked to the gang, was arrested in Quincy.

Further arrests, some of them probably in Boston, are imminent, Secret Service agents said.

The five men arrested in Fall River and booked on charges of possessing, passing and selling counterfeit money, gave the names of Salvatore Petrillo, 48; John Komos, 32; John Mello, 46; Antonio Mottas, 26, and Manuel Oliveria, 36.

FACE BOSTON HEARING

Arrested in Brockton was John Cabral, 36.

The man arrested in Quincy gave the name of Ernest Watson, 29, of Brockton. According to Quincy police, he attempted to pass a bogus $5 bill, and three other counterfeits were found in his possession.

A loaded automatic pistol of German make, but without a cartridge in its firing chamber, was found in Watson's automobile, police charged.

All are to be arraigned before a United States commissioner in Boston. It was stated.

Today's arrests recalled the indictment, Monday, of five women and two men, likewise on counterfeiting charges.

Report Clipper Wreck Found

MANILA, Sept. 14 (AP)—A garbled message indicating pieces of wreckage from the Hawaii Clipper had been found in the Eastern Philippines prompted government officials to investigation today.

No authenticated trace of the giant transpacific flying boat has been found since it disappeared July 29 with 15 men on a flight from Guam to Manila.

Post office officials said a vague telegram from Malaga, on Samoa Island, indicated wreckage of the clipper had been found west of Samar. The clipper was about 500 miles east of Samar when it sent its last radio message.

Legion Post Plans Carnival

Tomorrow, Friday and Saturday the West Roxbury Post No. 167, American Legion, will hold its annual carnival on the Legion grounds, Center street, West Roxbury.

A committee, headed by Commander William J. Nagle, has been working for weeks perfecting plans for the event.

The feature attraction will take place on the closing night, Saturday, when a 1938 sedan will be given away. In addition to the automobile, nine other valuable prizes will be awarded.

Assisting Chairman Nagle are Vice-Chairman Joseph Dwyer and Daniel Galvin.

Military Burial For Rep. Bacon

WASHINGTON, Sept. 14 (INS)—Full military honors will be accorded Representative Robert Low Bacon, 54, when he is buried in Arlington National Cemetery Friday. He died of a heart attack Monday in New York.

He was a Republican and he had represented the First New York District in the House since 1922. He served in the army during the World War and won the Distinguished Service Cross.

Bacon was prominent in Washington, New York and Boston society.

Hurley Appoints Nurse Probe Board

Governor Hurley today named a board of three to investigate registrations of nurses in the state as a result of complaints that favoritism was being shown and that some nurse agencies constituted a "racket."

The three named were Miss Ruth Smith of South street, Medford; Dr. Frank P. Boyd of Summer avenue, Springfield; and Mary H. Robbins of Broadway, Somerville.

'Punch Bag' Fight Truce Is Declared

Temporary truce was declared today in South Boston's punching bag battle when the case was suspended pending return of the master in charge of the hearing from a trip to Ohio.

Mrs. Emma Kiezie, Emerson street, testified that when Mrs. Mary Sullivan, 63, goes through her workouts with the bag in the back yard of her East Fifth street home, the noise rivals the racket of a steam roller.

Limit Bus Speed In State as 4 Battle Death

Interstate bus lines must rearrange schedules to keep speed of their vehicles under 50 miles an hour in Massachusetts, Registrar Frank A. Goodwin warned today.

His ultimatum came during the course of his probe of the Charlton bus and truck crash which killed seven persons and injured 13.

Goodwin said preliminary reports indicated the accident occurred when the heavy truck-trailer skidded and the speeding bus was unable to avert sufficiently to avoid collision.

STILL NEAR DEATH

Death toll in the Charlton crash threatened to mount today, as hospitals in Southbridge and Worcester listed four victims as in critical condition and unlikely to recover.

Meantime, Registrar Goodwin said:

"From scores of persons who have been passengers on these interstate bus lines, I have evidence that speeds of 60 to 70 miles an hour were common on night trips through the area where the fatal crash occurred."

"OTHER FELLOW" PERIL

"If the busses ran on rails or had the highway to themselves, such speeds might be justified."

"But there's always the 'other fellow' and drivers must be prepared for unforeseen emergencies. That means staying under 50 miles an hour."

"The bus lines that operate on highways of Massachusetts might as well make up their minds to rearrange their schedules so drivers won't have to go at faster speed than any other motorists."

Shift U. S. Cruiser Off England Coast

WASHINGTON, Sept. 14 (AP)—The Navy Department said today Admiral William D. Leahy, chief of naval operations, ordered the light cruiser Nashville to move from Portland, England, to Gravesend, 26 miles from London at the mouth of the Thames.

The Nashville will await at Gravesend the arrival of her sister-ship Honolulu, due September 22. The Navy said the two ships would make contact for technical reasons, such as the transfer of personnel, mail, sick, etc.

Underwriters Aid Jobs Drive

SALES MEAN JOBS

Boston insurance underwriters today began a five-day conference to map ways and means to lend the resources of their companies to the local National Sales Crusade.

Their participation in the campaign to accelerate sales and thereby increase production boosted overnight the number of firms enrolled in the movement from 1250 to 1550.

More than 82,000 "Sales Mean Jobs" buttons now appear in stores and business houses throughout the city.

Tomorrow, traditional date for discarding summer attire, has been designated as "Men's Hat Day."

E. C. Johnson, chamber of commerce member, and chairman of the Sales-Mean-Jobs campaign asserted today that every sale of six hats provides a day's work for a New England hat maker.

The National Sales Crusade, now in its 10th day, will continue until September 30.

Culbertson's Bridge Views

"Bridge is America's greatest indoor sport." That's Eli Culbertson's belief.

"Sometimes, even, bridge comes first."

Hundreds jammed the sixth floor of Jordan Marsh's downtown store to hear Culbertson, who is on a national tour, lecture.

"There'll be no new rules," he told them, "and no changes in contract bridge scoring, until January 1, 1940, at least."

He told a Boston Evening American reporter:

"People are tired of changes in bridge—and I am, too. I am more tired than they are. Let's allow folks to sit down and enjoy the game for a year."

TOUGH ON "PROS"

The average player's bridge, Culbertson says, "has improved tremendously." That's tough on the professionals, he admitted: the professionals aren't making the money they used to.

Culbertson admitted that, for all this talk about "science" and such, he, for one, personally believes "luck" does enter into bridge.

"I believe," he said, "that there is such a thing as people who are just congenitally poor-card holders."

But Culbertson doesn't believe, he said, in that old saying about being "lucky at cards, unlucky at love." He himself is divorced, but—

"Mrs. Culbertson and I," he said, "live in New York. Our homes are adjacent. We have two children, you know—Bruce, nine, and Joyce, 10. They alternate between our two places.

"There will be a world bridge championship at the New York World's Fair next year, under auspices of the International Contract Bridge League. Mrs. Culbertson, who is still my favorite bridge partner, will be my partner."

"One divorce? I'd like to be remarried, if that were possible, but I'm a sort of 'lone wolf,' I guess. Mrs. Culbertson deserves all the credit for managing to put up with me for the 14 years she did."

There have been rumors, he was reminded, that he might marry someone else. He grinned and said: "I pass on all the other bids, and make no bids myself."

Culbertson has turned playwright, he revealed. He has written "Queen Twice Guarded," which will be produced in New York in November.

He had a good word to say for the various "automatic" bridge games that are on the market.

"They're good teachers," he said.

Daniel Walsh, Carroll J. Robinson and Benjamin S. White, Jordan Marsh executives, were Culbertson's hosts at a luncheon on the ninth floor preceding his public appearance yesterday.

U. S. Seamen Flown To China Gunboat

SHANGHAI, Sept. 14 (AP) — Twelve United States seamen left here today in a plane supplied by Japanese authorities to relieve the crew of the American gunboat Manzanito, stationed up the Yangtze river near Kiukiang, 135 miles downstream from Hankow.

The Japanese had offered transportation to Shanghai to the 24 Manzanito crew members, who are due for relief after a year's service.

Salesman Fumes Suicide

SPRINGFIELD, Sept. 14—Frank E. Roberts, 54, a beer salesman, was found dead early today slumped over the steering wheel of his automobile, half in and half out of the garage in the rear of his home in Summer avenue.

The doors and windows of the car were tightly closed, and a metal tube ran from the exhaust into the interior of the machine, police said, Frank Henderson of East Longmeadow, a milk wagon driver, who discovered the tragically, said the motor was still running when he found Roberts in the car. Medical Examiner Charles J. Downey pronounced death due to suicide after an inhalator spud had used up 2½ tanks of oxygen in vain. Mrs. Roberts told police she knew of no reason for her husband's act. He left home last night to attend a political rally, she said.

Battle to Death In Film Booth

NEW YORK, Sept. 14 (AP)—Two film operators fought a death battle in a locked projection booth last night while 800 movie patrons below them sat watching a screen murder.

Clubbed by a fire extinguisher, Nathan Klein, 33, was killed during the hand-to-hand fight in the tiny cubicle. Sol Schulman, 38, the other projectionist, was seriously injured.

Patrolman Wesley McClelland said Schulman told him he wrestled the fire extinguisher from Klein when the latter attacked him after an argument. Schulman was charged with homicide.

The film being shown was "The Devil's Party" in which a night club owner is slain by gangland guns.

Court Tilt Won By 'Siege Wife'

Judge James A. Mulhall, in Quincy Court, today dismissed charges that Mrs. Mary Demarsh "Hannafor," Braintree "siege wife," conspired with a dangerous weapon two Boston women detectives attempting to enforce a court order.

The dismissal was ordered because she has been indicted on the same charges by the Norfolk County grand jury. No date was set for trial on the indictments.

N. H. Jury Returns 1st Kidnap Charge

Landon Sees G. O. P. Gains

LITTLE ROCK, Ark., Sept. 14 (AP)—Alfred M. Landon declared today the Republican party was "on its way back" and predicted more Republican governors would be elected this year than since 1930.

He declined to comment on the Tydings victory in the Maryland Democratic primary, an event which was hailed by Chairman John Hamilton of the Republican national committee as signaling that the "New Deal" is through.

The Arkansas Republican State convention asked for support of conservative Arkansas Democrats and nominated C. D. Atkinson, a 60-year-old lawyer to oppose Senator Hattie W. Caraway, Democratic nominee.

ELSIE ROBINSON writes from the woman's viewpoint, discusses everyday affairs and problems, regularly in the Boston American.

McCormack In New Attack On 'Red' Groups

Communism today was branded as the spearhead of all subversive activities by Congressman John W. McCormack, principal speaker at installation of officers of James Chittick Council, K. of C. of Hyde Park.

Congressman McCormack said: "In fighting Communism we must realize that the strongest forces we are combating are the allies of Communism, constituting certain self-appointed leaders of radical labor and their intellectual allies holding responsible positions in many of the colleges of our country."

"The favorite tactic of these groups is to try and discredit those fighting these vicious influences, calling them 'red-baiter' or 'Fascist'."

"Last year we found these forces attacking a special committee of the Massachusetts Legislature, and now we find them attacking a special committee appointed by Congress, the whole purpose being to try to discredit through subterfuge and to deceive the people on the efforts of such committees."

Fitzgerald G. O. P. Winner in Michigan

DETROIT, Sept. 14 (AP)—The nomination of Frank D. Fitzgerald as the Republican candidate for governor of Michigan was conceded today by his nearest opponent as latest primary returns showed an ever-mounting lead for the former chief executive of the state.

Fitzgerald will run against Governor Frank Murphy in November. Murphy was unopposed in the Democratic primary.

WE ASKED 1000 MEN TO RATE THIS WHISKEY

Here is the astonishing result: In their opinion Old Quaker—now 3 years old—is worth an average of over $1.00 more a quart than its actual price.

We asked 1,000 men to rate 3-year Old Quaker. One of them (right) was John A. Irwine, New Jersey business man. His word-for-word opinion follows:

"I'm sure I hit the right price when I say close to $4.00 a quart. Man—tell me where I can get it for less! It has what I call bouquet—it sure tastes slick, all right."

Here is the answer we received from 1,000 men who didn't know the age, name or price of the whiskey they were trying.

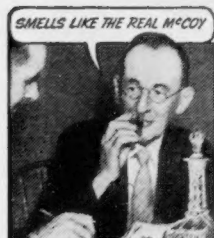

* These 1,000 men rated 3-year Old Quaker as worth an average of $1.59 more per quart than its actual price.

Please Repeat This Trial

We say—don't accept our opinion that 3-year Old Quaker is one of America's greatest whiskeys. Don't take the judgment of these 1,000 men that it's worth over $1.00 more a quart. Make your own trial.

Compare it with any other brand. And may the best one win. If it's Old Quaker—you've probably discovered a way to cut your whiskey bills one-third. 3-year Old Quaker is now on sale. Try it today.

Aiken, Gibson Sweep Vermont

MONTPELIER, Vt., Sept. 14 (INS)—Swamping his opponent under an 8 to 1 majority Governor George A. Aiken today was renominated in the Vermont Republican primary.

Nearly complete unofficial returns gave Aiken more than 30,000 votes to 3,000 for Elisha Goodell, United States Senator Ernest W. Gibson was renominated by a nearly 5 to 1 majority over Martin Vilas, and Republican Congressman Charles A. Plumley was renominated by 2 to 1 over Jack Crowley, with John Reid a poor third.

Texans Endorse Garner for 1940

BEAUMONT, Tex., Sept. 14 (AP)—Texas Democrats thunderously endorsed Vice-President John N. Garner for presidential nominee in 1940 as their state convention here ran into the early morning hours today.

A resolution praising the Texas and President Roosevelt received a roar of approval from the 1300 delegates.

Georgia Vote Tests 'Purge'

By the Associated Press

Seven Senators won renomination or moved to the front today in primary election returns, but national attention centered on the spectacular Georgia test of President Roosevelt's campaign against conservative legislators.

Georgia Democrats selected their senatorial candidate from these men:

Senator Walter F. George, described by Mr. Roosevelt as out of touch with the "bread objectives" of the Democratic party and the government.

Lawrence S. Camp, federal district attorney in Atlanta, recipient of a presidential blessing.

Former Governor Eugene Talmadge, who the Chief Executive said would "contribute little to practical government."

In Connecticut another Democratic senator who has opposed some administration measures sought renomination. He is Augustine Lonergan, endorsed by Attorney General Cummings, but opposed in a convention by Rep. Herman P. Koepfmann and two other aspirants. New Deal policies threatened to become an issue.

They did not enter to any marked degree, however, into the seven senatorial selections made yesterday. In four states, the Democratic incumbents were unopposed. They were Senators Fred H. Brown, New Hampshire; Elbert D. Thomas, Utah; John H. Overton, Louisiana, and Alvin B. Adams, Colorado.

In the choices involving contests, Vermont Republicans renominated Senator Ernest W. Gibson, and Washington Democrats chose Senator Homer T. Bone over Otto A. Cagge, a Townsendite. Senator Chas. Hayden, Arizona Democrat, was far ahead of two opponents.

BACKS WPA APPEAL

METHUEN, Sept. 14—Appeals of WPA workers for Saturdays off were strengthened today when sixteen Thomas Gunter and Arthur Nicholson stated they would seek approval of the plan from higher WPA officials.

Murphy Plurality In N. H. 6000

MANCHESTER, N. H., Sept. 14—Gov. Francis P. Murphy clinched the New Hampshire Republican gubernatorial nomination over Attorney-General Thomas F. Cheney by a plurality of nearly 6000 votes today.

Complete unofficial returns from 297 precincts in the Republican gubernatorial primary gave: Murphy 43,125; Cheney 37,235.

U. S. Representative Charles W. Tobey, endorsed by Townsend plan adherents, won the Republican senatorial nomination in a three-way contest by a three-to-one margin. Senator Fred H. Brown was unopposed for the Democratic senatorial nomination.

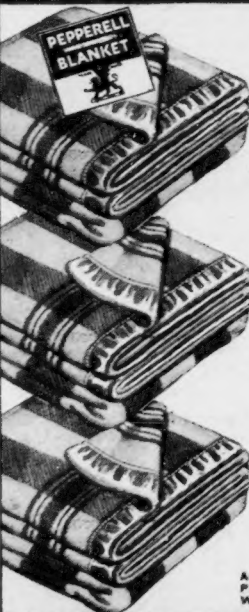

First congressional district voters made certain another November contest between U. S. Representative Alphonse Key (D.) and Arthur B. Jenks (R.).

'NOT MY STYLE!'

The Editor Says:—Every American needs to KNOW what the Constitution of the United States means to him.

For the Constitution belongs to the people themselves. It was adopted by their representatives in convention at Philadelphia on September 17, 1787, one hundred and fifty-one years ago next Saturday; and thereafter, it was ratified by the people themselves, acting through their chosen representatives, in their separate states.

Since then, the Constitution has been amended a number of times by the assent of the people; the Constitution itself guaranteeing to the people the right and power to change its provisions whenever, in the wisdom of the people, a change should be made.

All this was in the mind of Senator William E. Borah, of Idaho, when he said not long ago:

"The Constitution of the United States is the fertile and restless brain of Mussolini; the Constitution of Germany is the daring and resourceful character of Hitler; the Constitution of Russia is the iron will of Stalin; the Constitution of the United States is the will and purpose of the American people."

Senator Borah also said, at that same time, that the Constitution—

"... has given to the cause of human freedom and the advancement and enjoyment of human happiness as has no other document in the history of the world."

And profound students of government have in the past paid deep respect to the Constitution.

Among others, many years ago James Bryce, in his great book, "The American Commonwealth," remarked that—

"The Constitution is the generation in which the American people have been accustomed to hold it."

We could quote authority from statesmen and political scientists, showing how the Constitution has meant to them in the past.

But what does it mean to them in relation to the average citizen, to whom it is a reality?

What does it mean to you, to the alert young men and women in our high schools and colleges who will soon be voting citizens?

In order that you young Americans may examine their own minds, and have a well-earned forum for expressing themselves, the Boston Evening American is conducting this week an essay contest on—

"WHAT THE CONSTITUTION MEANS TO ME."

Readers in these pages will be found the details.

Every eligible student is invited to contribute his or her essay on this subject, and perhaps win one of the individual prizes, or help to win a "constitutional sum" for his or her school.

is indispensable.

It is our chief means of creating markets.

The inventor of an idea has accomplished nothing until the benefits of his discovery are available to a substantial part of the maximum number of people having need of it.

Women KNOW THE VALUE OF ADVERTISING.

They recognize the advertising sections of the newspapers as sources of INFORMATION.

Insurance Companies, under Charles F. J. Harrington of Massachusetts in speaking before a convention of insurance men at Oyster Bay, ADVOCATED NEWSPAPER ADVERTISING as the means of educating the public to the benefits of insurance.

Advertising and publicity GRATE MARKETS.

Advertising makes it possible to build up a PROFITABLE BUSINESS.

Insurance men should show speed in adopting Commissioner Harrington's proposal and buy MORE newspaper space.

Museum Bees Go on Strike

By EDWIN C. HILL

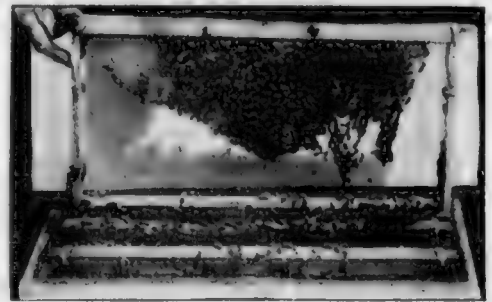

AS I remember Walter Dill Scott's famous lecture on the big depression and general beleaguement which has threatened all the processes of civilization as well as the affairs of men. Many persons probably have the curious impression that the interplay of all mankind's forces when they read the "Depression in Review" issue of Children's Museum.

The Brooklyn Museum of the Brooklyn Children's Museum have just making honey for the first time in 34 years. There is, of course, obvious connection about strikes, professional disputes and social tension of some sort in the hive.

The director of the museum, Mrs. William Lloyd Garrison, thinks this strike is a lack of information is lacking, and that there has been any picketing going on, or any unusual activity in the bee policy force by which this, like every other have is protected.

THIS force gives the bees rush to predatory bugs trying to steal honey or to any worker who won't work. These individual instances of antisocial behavior, and their corrective measures, frequently have been observed. But there are no known instances of social behavior, such as the bees' social behavior in the human state of the bees.

Charles Dill Scott, keeper of the museum, has also reas-ing and does not believe this is a new phase of social unrest. He thinks the prolonged wet spell followed by hot, dry weather might have dried up the nectar in the flowers, so the bees are in the same fix as Germany today. They lack raw materials.

Those Brooklyn bees, with all their honey impounded for future generations, have nothing with which to redress a trade balance.

IT IS HERE that the bee-state, as an analogy for human society, seems to bog down. If it hasn't plenty of raw materials within its own realm it is sunk, sooner or later. Living only in the future, getting "in the thick" by and by," as the Wobblies said to sing—it cannot be a part of that vast world fix of goods and services which alone makes a society.

vent and continuing state and civilization.

And we also call our states for. Nations cannot afford to be too strong about all that. Never has there been an age or a nation which has insulated the future like this one. Our taxes, our public debt, our railroad bonds maturing in 1940—one could fill this page with such commitments—all mean we are storing up honey for think we are for our descendants, and each of them getting less of the honey we make today.

The great human antithesis to all this is the American democracy. They were not transmitters. They lived in the past, not in the future, and their saving was the most magnificent flowering of the human spirit.

Human Grasshoppers Keep Money Moving

By DAMON RUNYON

OUR OLD MAN WAS DRIVEN by the idea of the grasshopper in the story of the grasshopper and the ant.

You know how the grasshopper, when he was young, was always storing up food for the winter, and the ant, when he was young, was always storing up food for the winter.

The grasshopper, when he was old, was always singing, and the ant, when he was old, was always working. The grasshopper, when he was old, was always singing, and the ant, when he was old, was always working.

He used to say that it was a good thing we were not all ants, or money would be tighter, and something awful. It would all be hoarded away in the nests of the ants. He said it was the grasshoppers of the human race that keep the wampum in circulation. He always called money wampum.

Our old man agreed to the general proposition that saving is a fine thing and he often advised us to that end, though he added that it was just as a matter of parental form.

HE claimed that saving was entirely a matter of instinct rather than of teaching or advice and that you either had that instinct or did not have it. That in short you were either an ant or a grasshopper and he gave it as his opinion that from the shape of our head we were a grasshopper. We need scarcely add his estimate turned out 100 per cent correct.

He had only one quarrel with those who had the saving instinct or the ants. He said he could readily understand that they got just as much pleasure out of pil-

'Bugs' Baer Says:

IT IS ONLY a few days before we are in the fall season when the grasshoppers will be in the fields and the ants will be in the nests.

THE NEW YORK TIMES has a picture of a grasshopper and an ant. The grasshopper is on the left and the ant is on the right.

WE SAW a grasshopper and an ant. The grasshopper was on the left and the ant was on the right.

THERE IS NOTHING new about the story. The grasshopper and the ant have been in the fields and the nests for many years.

THE WALTER DILL SCOTT was a famous lecturer on the big depression and general beleaguement which has threatened all the processes of civilization as well as the affairs of men.

THE BEE STATE is a lot of trouble. It is a lot of trouble to keep the bees from making honey.

WE CHASE any bug that is a nuisance. We chase any bug that is a nuisance. We chase any bug that is a nuisance.

WE CHASE any bug that is a nuisance. We chase any bug that is a nuisance. We chase any bug that is a nuisance.

"Pie" Traynor Has Vallee, Goodman Case of Jitters Battle Is Tops

By JACK CONWAY

"PIE TRAYNOR, manager of the Pirates, has been the most nervous man in baseball during the past month. His league leaders have had the jitters under pressure, and Traynor has been fearful they will lose their first place position. If such a thing happens, "Pie" knows he is likely to join Mickey Cochrane and Frankie Frisch as deposed managers. On paper the Pirates are favorites to win, but, unfortunately for Traynor, the final payoff is made on games won and lost.

Mr. Boston

While the Pirates are fighting desperately to maintain their slim lead, the Yankees are coasting to another pennant. Even a war or an earthquake could not shake the Yankees out of their perch at the head of the parade. Joe McCarthy's team will have plenty of opportunity to rest up for the World Series.

The track at Rockingham Park has been heavy which is why so many of the favorites have been upset. Horses that like heavy going have been doing all right by their supporters. There is considerable heavy dirt on the Rockingham Park. At Narragansett Park the track was exceptionally fast as most of the dirt was removed during the first three days of the meeting. It was a real pasteboard track over which Stagehand ran to win the $25,000 Narragansett Special and the $10,000 Governor's Handicap. Santa Anita is also a pasteboard track which is why Stagehand did so well out there.

Benny Goodman vs. Rudy Vallee

WALTER BROWN tells me the Battle of Music between Benny Goodman and his gang, playing swing music, and Rudy Vallee's Connecticut Yankees, demonstrating straight harmony, at the Garden on October 24 has made as wide an appeal as the Sonja Henie show of last winter. People in all the walks of life are anxious to see Goodman and Vallee in action along with the jitterbug contest. I would suggest that you make arrangements to take in the big show at the Garden on October 24. This monster attraction is being offered to assist the Christmas Basket Fund.

John Henry Lewis, world's light heavyweight champion, and Jimmy Adkins of Detroit collide in a ten-round bout in Philadelphia tomorrow night. Lewis is picked to win on points. Lewis was to have battled Tony Galento in Philadelphia last summer, but it was necessary to postpone the match at the last minute when the Newark tavern keeper was stricken with pneumonia.

An effort is being made to get Jimmy Johnston to head a title combine that would battle Mike Jacobs and the New York Garden. Funny part of the whole affair is that Joe Gould and Joe Jacobs, two of Mike Jacobs' former allies in Twentieth Century Club promotions, are among those anxious to have Johnston carry their banner. Jimmy is interested in Bob Pastor who battles Gunnar Barlund at the New York Garden on October 3. If Johnston can get a Joe Louis match for Pastor he will string along with Mike Jacobs. Johnston believes that Pastor has the boxing skill and punch to win from Louis.

Shamrocks Drilled for Open Game

THE SHAMROCKS have been drilled to play an open game, and this is the style of gridiron warfare they will use when they oppose The College All-Stars at Fenway Park tonight. Acting Mayor John E. Kerrigan, president of the Boston City Council, and Park Commissioner William P. Long will open the sixth annual Hole-in-One tournament of the Boston Evening American-Sunday Advertiser at Franklin Park at 10 o'clock on Monday morning. Everybody is invited to try his luck in this novel tournament.

Lucky Teter's Latest Thriller

I THOUGHT LUCKY TETER had given every possible thrill one could get stunting with an automobile when he was at the Garden, but he has surpassed his best local effort at the Brockton Fair. The high spot of the Lucky Teter show is where this daring driver clears ten cars while at the wheel of a stock car. It is necessary for Lucky Teter to cover 135 feet in his daring jump as the force of the landing sends his car skyrocketing backwards for 35 feet. When Lucky Teter first tried this feat, he crashed into four cars, but has overcome this by increasing the length of his jump.

Lucky Teter is an amazing young man of 36 years of age. He was christened Earl M. Teter out in his native Indiana, but took the nickname Lucky after numerous miraculous escapes from death. Teter used to be a welterweight boxer. Perhaps this is how he developed his marvelous body, and improved his time and reflexes.

Irish Horan, who does the announcing at the Lucky Teter show at the Brockton Fair, says the action as Teter goes through his act is faster than in boxing, hockey, football or any other sport, and I readily agree with him. Incidentally Horan, who was a top featherweight boxer 14 years ago, is one of the best announcers to whom I have listened.

It wasn't a surprise to anybody when Henry Armstrong vacated his title as world's featherweight champion. Armstrong no longer can make 126 pounds the weight for the featherweight class, and will restrict his efforts to defending his lightweight and welterweight titles. With Lou Ambers and Ceterino Garcia as rivals, Armstrong will have plenty of ring action.

Cubs Headed for Top

'Cinch to Win' Hartnett

By WALTER KILEY

Gabby Hartnett, never to be bided his light under the bushel, dominates his Chicago Cubs as 1938 National League pennant winners. "We're no good as in," modestly states Manager Leo, pride of Millville. "The World Series will be played" between the Yankee and Cubs at Wrigley Field. Better get your ticket applications in early.

Elbie Fletcher

That so-galling defeat suffered by the confident Chicagoans at the hands of the Bees was taken hard. It temporarily dimmed the Mid-Westerners' optimism. But not for long. The old cockiness soon broke through the clouds.

"The schedule from here in is all in the Cubs' favor," says Hartnett.

"Of our 15 remaining games, we have only five to be played against first division clubs, three with the Pirates and two with the Giants."

"On the other hand, Pittsburgh, now four games ahead of us, must face first division outfits in 15 more games, including three each with the Cubs and Giants and seven with Cincinnati."

"I can't see anything but a Pittsburgh crack-up. While these other leading teams are bowling each other over, we'll slip very quietly into the lead and stay there through that three game win/loss with the Pirates, one which will very probably definitely decide the issue in our direction."

BEES TOUGH
But the way Casey Stengel's Swarms handled themselves in the opener of the present two game series which concludes with a Charlie Root-Lou Fette pitching duel today at the Beehive, it's just as well for Charles Leo that his Cubs have only this one more affair left with the Bostons.

"I don't know what Ol' Case does to keep up these Bees when they play us. But they sure get in our hair—what's left of it," he says.

The Bees won two out of three games in each of the past two series with the Cubs and now have the edge in the present one, thanks to a superlative four-hit pitching performance by Minkman Jim Turner and a few hitting fellows like Elbie Fletcher who helped himself to a triple, double and pair of singles in four trips. Joe Stripp, who got three out of three and batted in three of the large runs, and Debs Gurns who made two more of the Bees' 11 socks.

Dickman Fed to Tigers

DETROIT, Sept. 14.—Another Boston and Detroit season's series concluded today with the Tigers certain of the honors by winning the opener 5-2.

Emerson Dickman was the starting pitcher. Manager Joe Cronin said today while the Tigers counter with Tommy Bridges.

Pitching, the desire and bane of all baseball clubs during the current campaign, was lacking on the Boston side in the initial clash.

William Harris started and lasted until one Tiger was out in the fourth. James Bagby relieved him and when the inning closed the Tigers had batted around for six runs out of a collaboration of six hits and one base on balls.

Richard Midkiff went in for Bagby at the start of the fifth and stayed through the sixth long enough to yield four passes but escaping without a hit or a run.

In came Ted Olson and he retired the six batters to face him in a fashion that reminded an old timer of Robert Moses Grove at his peak.

One ray of comfort came Boston's way in the sixth when Pinky Higgins humered into the right field upper covek with James Fox, who had doubled to open the Red Sox half, ahead of him.

Vernon Kennedy had the help of four double plays. Able assistance from William Rogell, and some first basing by Hank Greenberg that turned two bad throws into putouts did not hurt the Tiger's cause.

Foe for Louis Sought

Lewis, Adamick Open Tournery

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 14 (AP)—Herman Taylor, veteran Philadelphia promoter, lined up six top-notch prizefighters today for a series of elimination bouts he hopes will develop a challenger to heavyweight champion Joe Louis.

The first of the bouts—a 10-round non-title encounter between light heavyweight champion John Henry Lewis of Phoenix, Ariz., and Jimmy Adamick, of Midland, Mich.—is scheduled for tomorrow night at Convention Hall.

Taylor said Jack Kearns, manager of Adamick, and Gus Greenlee, Lewis' pilot, were among the managers who had agreed to back the series and to let their boys fight exclusively under his promotion.

The others, he said, were Joe Jacobs, who manages Tony Galento, of Orange, N. J., and former heavyweight champion Max Schmeling, of Germany, and Joe Gould, pilot of Tommy Farr, of Wales, and former heavy champion, Jimmy Braddock.

JIMMY ADAMICK

"Some of the boys think I'm at 'war' with Mike Jacobs, the New York promoter," Taylor commented. "That isn't true. I do think Mike is devoting too much time to Louis. Hence, for business reasons, I've decided to hold a series of eliminations among the leading heavies which I hope will develop a top-notch challenger for next summer. But there's nothing personal between Mike Jacobs and me.

Jacobs holds the exclusive right to Louis' services.

"It is my hope, Taylor continued, "that by next summer the survivors of our bouts will be rated so highly by the fans that they will demand a fight for him and Louis."

The winner of the Lewis-Adamick fight, Taylor said, probably will be matched against Farr either late this year or early in January.
